

I want independent media organizations to exist in the future. I do not want these rules relaxed. An example of how this is bad for the American Public is proven by the lack to reporting in the media about this issue. The public should be well informed of this pending decision.